

TOWN OF FRISCO
PROCLAMATION 25-01
CHARLOTTE CLARKE IS RECOGNIZED AS FRISCO'S FINEST

WHEREAS, when Charlotte Clarke moved to Frisco in 1994, she brought her passion and knowledge from a career as a college professor to our community, leading tours on plant life, history, and junior archeology to the public for the following decades; and,

WHEREAS, in the 1990s Charlotte Clarke interviewed and hiked with the last generation of Friscoites to mine and ranch during the 1930s, documenting mine and cabin locations and recording numerous stories and history that would have otherwise been lost forever; and,

WHEREAS, throughout her involvement with the Frisco Historical Society, Charlotte Clarke acted as secretary along with accessioning and preserving dozens of artifacts donated to the Museum; and,

WHEREAS, on January 7, 2023, Charlotte Clarke gifted the Frisco Historic Park and Museum and the Town of Frisco the rights to her field guide The Mines of Frisco and Beyond for the Frisco Historic Park and Museum to update and publish for the good of the community. This booklet was originally printed in 2004 and in the following years became a staple to the historic resources that lie within and around Frisco; and,

WHEREAS, Charlotte Clarke continues to volunteer her time to the community, recently retiring from her role on the board of Friends of the Dillon Ranger District, volunteering at the Community and Senior Center and the hospital, and making her wealth of knowledge a resource easily accessible to the Frisco Historic Park and Museum and the whole community.

NOW, THEREFORE, CHARLOTTE CLARKE IS HEREBY PROCLAIMED TO BE FRISCO'S FINEST. DATED THIS 14TH DAY OF JANUARY, 2025.
