Agenda Item #1: Estimated Start Time 7:05 p.m. Update on STR Regulations and Tabling the First Reading of Ordinance 22-10 1) MAYOR OPENS PUBLIC HEARING 2) STAFF REPORT 3) PUBLIC COMMENTS 4) MAYOR CLOSES PUBLIC HEARING 5) COUNCIL DISCUSSION 6) MOTION MADE 7) MOTION SECONDED 8) DISCUSSION ON MOTION 9) QUESTION CALLED

Town Attorney Thad Renaud stated that while reviewing the ordinance, he discovered a recent case decision issued by the United States Court of Appeals for the Fifth Circuit that determined that an STR regulation exemption for primary residence homeowners violated an interstate commerce clause by discriminating against out-of-state property owners. Frisco's attorney therefore recommended Town Council consider alternative options to the exempt license. Approximately, 119 existing STR license holders may have qualified for the exempt license type. By increasing the cap from 22% to 25%, the total number of STR licenses would therefore be approximately the same as the original intended amount. To meet a main objective of mitigating negative impacts to the local community, including the availability and affordability of housing, Council directed staff to return with an ordinance that would set the STR license cap to 25% instead of 22% of the residential housing stock, and include exemptions for properties that are under construction or under contract. There was also a discussion about allowing STR licenses to be transferrable if a property is transferred between family members. Council indicated that more discussion is needed to consider an exemption of this type and to ensure such a provision would not create an unintended loophole that would undermine the intent of this ordinance. Mayor Mortensen opened public comment at 7:32 p.m. David Rolling, Julie Koster, Amy Nakos and Steve Fisher spoke regarding higher caps, inclusion of new construction and properties under contract, enforcement, local contacts, continued review of case law. There being no further public comment, the Mayor closed public comment at 7:46 p.m.
