

TOWN OF FRISCO
PROCLAMATION
RECOGNIZING RESILIENCE AND GRATITUDE THROUGH ONE YEAR OF COVID-19

WHEREAS, the first case of COVID-19 in Colorado was identified in Summit County, Colorado on March 5, 2020; and

WHEREAS, 115 million people in the world, 28 million people in the United States, and 434,000 people in Colorado have tested positive for COVID-19; and

WHEREAS, 2.56 million people in the world, 518,000 people in the United States, and 6,063 people in Colorado have lost their lives to COVID-19; and

WHEREAS, the normal course of daily life, commerce, celebrations, education, gatherings, healthcare, travel, arts, and culture have been disrupted in unprecedented ways across the world, Colorado, Summit County, and Frisco; and

WHEREAS, Summit County's and Frisco's residents have come together at unparalleled levels to support each other, local businesses, youth, local non-profits, and those most in need; and

WHEREAS, Summit County's and Frisco's businesses have acted with exceptional perseverance, innovation, and resilience to keep businesses open and residents employed, to support the financial well-being of the whole community, and to serve the community with vital products and services; and

WHEREAS, Summit Public Health and the community's healthcare providers have delivered remarkable service to the community to protect public health and save lives; and

WHEREAS, frontline workers in grocery stores, restaurants, public safety, transportation, education, postal services, road and infrastructure maintenance, technology, and utilities have served with dedication; and

WHEREAS, the Town of Frisco recognizes the extraordinary challenges of the past year, as well as the extraordinary actions of residents, businesses, employees, Summit Public Health, and healthcare providers; and

WHEREAS, the Town of Frisco acknowledges that there are brighter and better days ahead because of the outstanding efforts of the people in our community.

NOW THEREFORE, I HUNTER MORTENSEN, MAYOR OF THE TOWN OF FRISCO, COLORADO DO HEREBY OFFICIALLY PROCLAIM GRATITUDE TO OUR COMMUNITY FOR THEIR PERSERVERANCE, CREATIVITY, CARING, AND UNMATCHED LEVEL OF SUPPORT OF EACH OTHER.

DATED THIS 9TH DAY OF MARCH, 2021.

TOWN OF FRISCO

By: _____
Hunter Mortensen, Mayor

ATTEST:

By: _____

Deborah Wohlmuth, CMC, Town Clerk