

HIGH COUNTRY
CONSERVATION CENTER

HC3's Impact in Frisco: 2020 Year in Review

April 13, 2021

Climate Action

- 7 Solarize Summit projects
- Launched commercial energy benchmarking pilot
- Developed communitywide EV readiness plan
- Hosted 2 highly attended community events

Resource Wise

- 8/5 new businesses enrolled
- 4/5 projects completed
- $844 average annual project savings
- 472 LED bulbs installed

Energy Smart Colorado

- 26/25 home energy assessments
- 12/12 home energy retrofits
- $460 average annual retrofit savings
- 126 LED bulbs installed

LOVE SUMMIT COUNTY

We're the Bergerons and we love Summit County. That's why we're writing. We heard about something we need to do to keep our homes healthy, safe, and warm.

Flip the page to learn more.

HighCountryConservation.org/
LoveSummit

HIGH COUNTRY
CONSERVATION CENTER

PARTNERS IN ENERGY
An Xcel Energy Community Collaboration

Recycling in Frisco

- 8 restaurants began composting, 2 additional HOAs supported
- 267 residents enrolled in composting
- 100+ students supported with composting education
- 2 educational videos produced

Strong Future

- Free Food Scrap Drop-off at 3 centers
- 16 glass stations
- Silverthorne recycling center
- Mattress recycling at SCRAP
- Marketing campaign
- Residential education – oops tags

Mattress & Glass

SUMMIT DAILY

Serving Summit County, CO

News ▾ Coronavirus ▾ Opinion ▾ Explore Summit ▾ Sports & Outdoors ▾ Multimedia ▾ Calendar Magazines ▾

E-edition | S

16 ways (and counting) to recycle glass in Summit County

Glass can't be mixed with other recyclables but new drop-off bins make it easy to recycle your bottles and jars

News FOLLOW NEWS | 5h ago

Brought to you by the High Country Conservation Center

ATTENTION ALL
NIGHT OWLS
& EARLY RISERS

SUMMIT COUNTY NEEDS YOU
TO RECYCLE YOUR OLD MATTRESSES
FOR FREE AT THE SCRAP
HIGHCOUNTRYCONSERVATION.ORG

CALLING ALL
NATURE LOVERS

SUMMIT COUNTY NEEDS YOU
TO RECYCLE GLASS BOTTLES & JARS
AT 16 DROP-OFF STATIONS
HIGHCOUNTRYCONSERVATION.ORG

Strong Future 2021 Focus

- Pay as You Throw Stakeholder engagement
- Technical assistance for HOAs/businesses
- Oops tags
- Marketing campaign
- Stump the Recycling Experts

Water Conservation

- 7/5 indoor water check-ups complete
- 5,514 gallons saved per home
- 38,599 gallons saved annually
- Research began for a local program to reduce outdoor water use
- 2 educational initiatives promoted