* The October 20, 2021 court session was a special session held to address building code violations. No court was held in October of 2020.

Officers successfully intervened with a woman who attempted suicide, the SMART team arrived, she refused help, our Officers put her on a M1 hold.

Officers were notified about a male who works at Denver Mattress Co. in Frisco, who had kidnapped a woman and was wanted by the Georgetown Police Department. Sgt. Vail went under cover at the Matress Company and was able to assist Georgetown PD in apprehending the suspect. Georgetown was the originating agency.

Our admin staff is currently training on the new court software, which is slated to go live on December 1.

A new sex offender registered with our agency.
